About Once:

Book : Enda Walsh

Music : Glen Hansard & Marketa Irglova

Winner of 8 Tony Awards in 2012 including Best New Musical.

The Story:

His music needed one thing. Her.

Based on the much-loved Oscar-winning film, Once is an extraordinary, original and irresistibly joyous celebration of love, friendship and music. When an Irish busker and a young Czech mother meet through a shared love of music, their song writing sparks a deep connection and a tender, longing romance that neither of them could have expected.

An old -fashioned love story that dares to be different, Once takes you right to the heart of the action in a rapturous production that dazzles with invention.

This unique adaptation is brought to life by a supremely talented cast of actor-musicians who unleash all the giddy exhilaration of an Irish ceilidh live on stage. Featuring all of the magical songs from the original film, including the Oscar-winning "Falling Slowly", this is an achingly beautiful, thrillingly inspirational show that strikes a truly unforgettable chord.

Notes from the Creative Team for Once:

1. There is no orchestra in Once, the cast play all instruments. This is NOT THE SHOW to become a musician....you must already be one, however if you played the violin (for example) when you were a teenager and haven't played for years but have a natural talent, this has sometimes worked with previous productions.
2. You must be available for the entire rehearsal process commencing 18th August. If you are unable to commit to the entire rehearsal process, please do not submit an application.
3. During the online audition round we would suggest you do not submit a piece from Once unless that is considered your party piece. We would prefer to see you perform an item that you are comfortable with and shows you at your peak. This will assist us to identify the role we would like to see you audition for.

The Audition Process:

Please read the following information carefully.

All applicants will be required to submit an online application.
There are no exceptions.

Round 1:

- Commences Tuesday 17th September 2013
- All candidates will submit an online audition consisting of 2 separate video links
  1. 45 second of their 'party piece' song.
    - a) Applicants should consider the style of music featured in Once. We do not recommend you submit a song from Once.
    - b) Please be mindful of the quality of the video and sound quality.
  2. 30 second monologue or reading
    - a) Please do not submit text from Once.

Round 2:

- Having viewed the Round 1 applications the Creative Team will nominate the applicants they wish to see in Round 2.
- Successful applicants will be notified and will be invited to prepare and upload material from the show:
  - a) The auditionee will be notified of their successful completion of Round 1.
  - b) Material from the show for a specific role will be emailed to the auditionee.
  - c) The auditionee will have 2 weeks to learn and upload a video link.

Live Auditions:

- Having viewed the Round 2 applications the Creative Team will nominate the applicants they wish to see in the Live Auditions held in Melbourne and Sydney in December 2013.
- Auditionees will be notified by 20th November if they have been successful in this process.

Characters:

General Notes

- There is not a lot of “dancing” in Once, it is perhaps best described as “movement”. In the following character breakdown Level 1 identifies that an accomplished level of movement and co-ordination is required while level 3 requires the most advanced movement skills.
- In all cases, the capacity to create movement that does not look like dance is essential. The entire company should always look like people first and foremost.
- The capacity to sit inside movement rather than being presentational is also essential for all castings.
- Vocally all characters need to be able to harmonise
- The tonal ‘world’ of this music is a pop/folk, contemporary sound. (some a little rockier)

We are looking for the following roles for the 2014 Australian production of ONCE.

GIRL

GENDER: Female
